

Chelmsford Teaching Schools Alliance

Recently Qualified Teacher Programme 2020 -2021

Delivered by – Gemma Woolley (Assistant Head, Chelmer Valley High School)

About the Sessions:

This successful programme for recently qualified teachers initially designed by the Eastern Leadership Centre is once again being offered to primary and secondary teachers in our locality.

With a focus on reflective practice, discussion and a coaching style the programme is centred around three twilight sessions with associated inter-sessional activities:

Sessions 1-3	What we cover
Great Teaching – becoming an expert practitioner in the classroom.	What makes great teaching? OFSTED criteria and sharing good practice Methods of reflection to support development as a great teacher.
Leading Learning – developing yourself as a leader.	Exploring what makes a good leader Identifying my current leadership strengths and areas for development Understanding the use of reflection, growth mindset and emotional intelligence as part of the learning journey to become an effective leader of learning.
Forgoing ahead – pathways to further success for you and others.	Developing social awareness and relationship management to develop teams Dealing with difficult conversations Overcoming obstacles to success.
